❖ Applicants from the OECD member countries are exempted from the requirements from the General Information.

1. Passport (with minimum 2 blank pages. Please present your old passports, if any)
2. Application form (click here to download)
3. One photograph taken within the last 6 months. (must be 2x2 inches, black and white or color with plain background)
4. Questionnaire (click here to download)
5. Questionnaire related to Novel Coronavirus (click here to download)
6. Certificate of eligibility (original and a photocopy)

(In case the applicant presents an expired Certificate of Eligibility issued on or after October 1st 2019, the applicant is required to show an additional document issued by his/her accepting organization in Japan that states the organization will still be able to accept the applicant to have him/her engage in the activities described on the application for the Certificate of Eligibility).
7. Residence Track (click here to download)
8. If you meet certain criteria for a representative to apply on your behalf, you may let your representative apply on your behalf. In such case, you need to submit an authorization letter (English / Japanese / Thai) written by yourself. A letter has no specific form and if you wish you can download a sample at (https://jp-vfsglobal-th.com/allvisacategories_application.html).

Remarks:

- (1) If the documents are insufficient or incomplete, we may not be able to accept your application.

- (2) On the date of application, JVAC will hand you a receipt in exchange for your passport and you will find the collection date of your passport on the receipt. The average time required for the necessary examination is 5 working days, but in some cases the Embassy will request additional documents or an interview, which will take longer. If you have not heard from us more than 10 days after your application, you can call us and check progress by quoting the 8 digit barcode number on your receipt.

For more information, please contact JVAC or Visa Section by phone. English speaking staff will assist you.
